We as "Transgender" have countless of obstacles/difficulties to reach our end goals without having a group waste their energies against all Transgender people. This group is nothing more then vigilante that encompasses all Transgender as criminals and places us in harms way. We have the RIGHT to exist!

Beyond the misgendering and mischaracterisation of trans people, they appear to think that the death of a trans woman in police custody is no big deal. Agreeing that trans women don't deserve to be killed by police is the lowest bar imaginable and it's still too high for them.

Discrimination is wrong, no matter what your justification is. No hate, only love.

Trans people are people too, and deserve the right to be free from harassment.

To speak of humans as being less human, are patent words of hate. We identify as humans.

Trans people have to put up with so much hate and violence directed at them as a matter of everyday life, and there's a group dedicated to portraying us negatively through misinformation? That's bigotry, plain and simple.

This group seeks to end protections against discrimination on the basis of gender identity, putting many transgender people at risk

Looking at their website, its apparent that they lack a very basic understanding of human biology as well as pyschology. Their actions are very short sighted and detrimental to those who are Intersex, Transgender and Transsexual. They're only encouraging harassment, abuse and assult against those who can least afford or deal with it.

Hate is what hate is. Dressing it up in different words doesn't take away from the fact that they are spreading lies and demonizing a people who are in the minority and thus are often marginalized in this country. Transgender people need protection from such "well meaning" hateful people as these.

That's just disgusting. It's none of these peoples' business how trans people live their lives and it's time for the hate to stop.

The idea that protecting trans people is somehow 'erasing the reality of female people' is about erasing the reality of trans people. That a group that models its name on SPLC's own HateWatch uses lies and deception to increase hatred of trans people, especially trans women, is beyond ironic.

It is time that the hate be recognized more widely. When groups repeat what other recognized hate groups do, it is time to recognize them as well.

As parents of a dear lesbian daughter and supporters of the LGBT community, these issues are important for us, and should be important for ALL human beings.

This blog is owned by a privileged white woman who openly harasses both transgenders and butch lesbians. She needs to stop.

The misrepresentation of gender identity issues, us as people and our psychological well being, is blatant Hate propoganda and should never be allowed to represent the Trans and Gender community on anything. At best they are self-haters and promoters of bigotry and violence against our oppressed minority group.

Misogyny is dangerous and hate speech desensitizes the public and gives haters, rapist, and abusers the idea that they are justified in abusing and hating women.
