Hello - Do you have any actual details on the Florence High School case in Colorado? Because it seems made up. Many thanks.

No, of course not. The Vice Principal regularly raided the boys' room, but not the girls' room. There was no official committee, but females would allow persons with penises into the girls room if they had socially proved themselves to not be assholes.

Transgender student causing controversy

Kate Con So, as the interview with the superintendent of the school corroborates, there was no harassment-not even an accusation of harassment- just 2 students who told their parents that they were uncomfortable having the transgender student using a toilet (in a stall, with a door) in the girls bathroom. No sharing of space in the locker room (ie, when changing either).

Cathy Brennan It's reasonable for girls to be uncomfortable in that situation.
